

9th International PhD Student Workshop Exchange Bielefeld/Notre Dame

Sunday, 20 May

- 9.30 am–10.15 am Session I, Chair: Professor Alexander Martin (Notre Dame)
Daniele Toro (Bielefeld): Fascist “Dark Networks” between Germany, Austria and Italy 1918–1933: A Mixed Methods Approach. Discussant: Sejoo Kim (Notre Dame)
- 10.15 am–11.00 am Jillian Plummer (Notre Dame): A ‘Pseudo-Effort’ in Christian Charity: Religious Women and the Peruvian Critique of Development, 1966–1977. Discussant: Luise Fast (Bielefeld)
- 11.30 am–12.30 pm (Joint) Session II, Chair: Dr. Bettina Brandt (Bielefeld)
Rachel Ramsey (Notre Dame): Southern German Conceptions of German Identity before Unification: A Case Study of Two Franconian Newspapers. Discussant: Daniele Toro (Bielefeld)
Jorge Puma Crespo (Notre Dame): ‘From the Masses to the Masses’: The Reception of Mao Tse Tung Thought in Latin America. Discussant: Ina Kiel (Bielefeld)
- 1.30 pm–2.15 pm Session III, Chair: Professor Stephan Merl (Bielefeld)
Agnes Piekacz (Bielefeld): The Colonists’ Old Clothes. The Secondhand Clothing Trade in the British Empire, c. 1850–1910. Discussant: Jillian Plummer (Notre Dame)
- 2.15 pm–3.00 pm Suzanna Krivulskaya (Notre Dame), “What Is Done in Secret”: U.S. Protestants and the Persistent Threat of Scandal in the Early Twentieth Century. Discussant: Lena Gumpert (Bielefeld)
- 3.30 pm–4.15 pm Session IV, Chair: Professor Darren Dochuk (Notre Dame)
Sisay Megersa Dirirsa (Bielefeld): The Ethiopian Empire: A Future Past Dialectics. Discussant: Nicholas Roberts (Notre Dame)
- 4.15 pm–5.00 pm Johannes Nagel (Bielefeld): The United States Military in the Global Transformation, 1865–1905. Discussant: John Nelson (Notre Dame)

Tuesday, 22 May

- 9.00 am–10.00 pm Keynote Lecture
Darren Dochuk (Notre Dame):
Crude Awakenings: The Religion and Politics of Oil in America’s Century
- 10.00 am–11.00 pm Joint Session V, Dissertation Proposals, Chair: Professor Thomas Welskopp (Bielefeld)
Sejoo Kim (Notre Dame): Frontier Capitalism: The Rise and Fall of the Garment Industry in the American Pacific, 1970–2005. Discussant: Agnes Piekacz (Bielefeld)
Nicholas Roberts (Notre Dame): Forging the Sultanate: State Making in Oman and the Crucible of Global Modernity, 1749–1913. Discussant: Marcus B. Carrier (Bielefeld)
- 11.30 am–12.15 pm Thomas Meyers (Notre Dame): Philology: The Bible as Authority in the Mersenne Circle. Discussant: Simon Siemianowski (Bielefeld)
- 1.15 pm–2.00 pm Session VI, Chair: Dr. Levke Harders (Bielefeld)
Luise Fast (Bielefeld): Decentering Cultural Encounter – Interpreters as Transcultural Brokers in the 19th Century. Discussant: Suzanna Krivulskaya (Notre Dame)
- 2.00 pm–2.45 pm John Nelson (Notre Dame): ‘The Door is Rather Too Wide to Close’: The Chicago Portage and Great Lakes Maritime Frontier, 1787–1815. Discussant: Johannes Nagel (Bielefeld)
- 3.15 pm–4.00 pm Session VII, Chair: Dr. Julia Roth (Bielefeld)
Ina Kiel (Bielefeld): Grasping Militants, Grasping Revolution. On Transmission and Power of Revolutionary Thinking in Central Europe during the 1920s via the Intellectual Actions of Fernand Desprès. Discussant: Jorge Puma Crespo (Notre Dame)
- 4.00 pm–4.45 pm Carla Villanueva (Notre Dame): The Presence of UNESCO in Mexican Education Reforms during the Cold War. Discussant: Sisay Megersa Dirirsa (Bielefeld)

For further information please contact Dr. Bettina Brandt or visit the homepage:
www.uni-bielefeld.de/bghs/Programm/BGHS_spezifische_Formate/notredame.html

Date:
19–24
May 2018

Room:
X-B2-103

