the CHIMSPAS conference
on August 22 & 23, 2019

Receive a certificate of attendance

Are you interested in innovation management and especially in managing smart services and products? Would you like to be part of an international conference dealing with deep insights into this topic?

We invite up to 10 student attendees from Bielefeld University to participate in the International Conference on Challenges in Managing Smart Products and Services (CHIMSPAS) on the 22th and 23th of August, 2019 organized by the Institute for Technological Innovation, Market Development and Entrepreneurship (iTIME). Meet (inter-)national professors and practitioners who are experts in this area and enjoy two days full of interesting presentations. The invited student attendees will also receive a certificate of attendance.

All you have to do is writing a motivation letter of 1-2 pages explaining why you would like to participate in the conference. Please send your motivation letter and your CV to nicola.bilstein@uni-bielefeld.de by June 15, 2019. Both documents may be submitted in German or English. Please notice that the conference language will be English. Of course, your participation in the conference will be free of charge, if you are selected. You can find more information about the conference on www.chimspas-2019.de.

We are looking forward to your application,
Nicola Bilstein & Christian Stummer ■
